A LONG- FELT WANT.

It Is Supplied at Last in Barre.

Good-natured people are often irritable. If you know the reason, you would not be surprised.

Ever have itching piles? Not sick enough to go to bed; not well enough to be content.

The constant itching sensation. Hard to bear, harder to get relief. Spoils your temper, nearly drives you crazy.

Isn't relief and cure a long-felt want? You can have relief and cure if you will follow the advice of a local citizen.

P. S. Sandor (farmer) of West Topsham, says: "I was subject to itching hemorrhoids, commonly called piles, for a number of years despite the use of innumerable salves and ointments brought to my notice by friends and acquaintances and through the Barre newspapers and other sources of information. The malady, disease or complaint, term it what you will, was often bad enough in the winter, but in hot weather the itching and annoyance was unendurable. I heard of Doan's Ointment and got a box at B. A. Drown's drug store in Barre. When it effectually stopped such an old and chronic case as mine, which had resisted every effort on my part to check it, let alone cure, I have often wondered what this remedy would do in the incipient stages of that far too common annoyance, piles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

How a Motorman Guards His Seat.

All other means having failed, J. A. Hensley, a motorman on the Forest Park line in Kansas City, Mo., recently resorted to poetry to keep passengers from camping on his stool when he is not using it, says the Kansas City Times. He has this original verse printed and pasted on the top of the stool, and he says it never fails to stop them:

A little favor I would ask
And trust it may forever last.
Now please excuse my lack of school,
But I must say, "Get off my stool!"

Reforesting.

The experience of Europe shows that reforesting restores dried up streams and makes habitable tracts of country from which the inhabitants had previously been driven by floods.
